WEDNE-DAY SVENING, MARCH 9

Perseverance. One step and then another, And the longest walk is ended; One stitch and then another, And the largest rent is mended; One brick upon another, And the highest wall is made; One flake upon another. And the deepest snow is laid.

So the little coral workers, By their slow and constant motion, Have built those pretty islands In the distant, dark blue ocean, And the publicst undertakings Man's wisdom hath conceived, By oft repeated effort

Have been patiently achieved. Then do not look disheartened On the work you have to do, And say that such a mighty task You i ever cau get through;

But just endeavor day by day At d another point to gain, And soon the mountain which you feered Wil prove to be a plain.

"Rome was not built up in a day," The ancient proverb teaches. And Na ure, by her trees and flowers, The same sweet sermon preaches. Think not of far-off duties, But of duties, which are neer, And having once begun to work, Resolve to persevere.
